Cultural Heritage and the Future Cornelius Holtorf, Anders Högberg, 2020-12-10 Cultural Heritage and the Future brings together an international group of scholars and experts to consider the relationship between cultural heritage and the future. Drawing on case studies from around the world, the contributing authors insist that cultural heritage and the future are intimately linked and that the development of futures thinking should be a priority for academics, students and those working in the wider professional heritage sector. Until recently, the future has never attracted substantial research and debate within heritage studies and heritage management, and this book addresses this gap by offering a balance of theoretical and empirical content that will stimulate multidisciplinary debate in the burgeoning field of critical heritage studies. Cultural Heritage and the Future questions the role of heritage in future making and will be of great relevance to academics and students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies, archaeology, anthropology, architecture, conservation studies, sociology, history and geography. Those working in the heritage professions will also find much to interest them within the pages of this book.

Becoming the System Nelson Flores,2023-10 Bilingual education is usually framed as a tool of antiracism. This book challenges that framing by pointing to the ways that the foundations of modern approaches to bilingual education have their roots deficit perspectives of Latinx communities. It connects these deficit perspectives with a broader shift in discussions of race that framed racial inequities as a product of cultural and linguistic deficiencies of racialized communities as opposed to structural barriers produced by centuries of racist policies. It then examines the ways that Latinx professionals who entered the field of bilingual education were expected to adopt this deficit perspective in ways that served to maintain racial oppression.

The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable, demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term. Nearly everything we treasure in the world’s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago. Cities like Prague, Paris, and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture, walkable neighborhoods, and human scale. Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years—not because of traffic, population growth, or other practical hurdles, but because of ill-considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it. The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question. The solutions being offered today—sustainability, walkability, smart and green technologies—hint at what has been lost and what may be regained, but they remain piecemeal and superficial. In The Art of Classic Planning, architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time-tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism. With hundreds of full-color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects, planners, administrators, and developers, The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning. Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto, Vienna, and Venice, and by the great successes of L'Enfant's Washington, Haussmann's Paris, and Burnham's Chicago, Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today's world. The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities.

The Lighthouse Keeper's Tea Ronda Armitage, 2014 Mr Grinling the lighthouse keeper wants to try his hand at cooking, but Mrs Grinling doesn't want him in her kitchen. He decides to take up a variety of other hobbies with varying degrees of success.

The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey, 2014-07-01 On 26 December 1900, the vessel Hesperus arrived at Eilean Mor in the remote Outer Hebrides with a relief lighthouseman and fresh provisions. The lighthouse had been in operation for a year, but it had been noted that no light had been seen from Eilean Mor for several days. The relief keeper, Joseph Moore, found the lighthouse to be completely deserted, and a subsequent search of the island failed to reveal any sign of what had happened to the three keepers. The last entry in the logbook had been made on 15 December and contained a number of strange and distressing clues as to the mental states of the men. One was reported to have been crying, while another had become 'very quiet'. When it was revealed that the men's oilskin coats were missing and the clock in the lighthouse had stopped, theories surrounding the keepers' fates inevitably proliferated. These included a giant wave washing them away, murder or suicide. Others favoured more esoteric explanations - Eilean Mor was believed to have mystical properties. In The Lighthouse, Keith McCloskey explores this mysterious and chilling story in depth for the first time and reveals a shocking conclusion.

Roadtrip Journal - Iberian Peninsula , A look inside the ebook... In it you will find not only our daily routine that marked our road trip but also some tips of unmissable places in the Iberian Peninsula! Unique photos and some intimate and sincere vents. We loved the experience so we couldn't keep it to ourselves. Here are some excerpts of some curious and unique situations that we went through: "(...)We extended the night a bit more in the small place beside the water (where the kayaks and motorboats leave) drinking a bit more wine, smoking some cigarettes and sharing childhood memories, experiences of past times. The sky was filled with stars, the fact that it was no moon day allowed us to contemplate a sky loaded with stars.(...)" "(...)Leaving Aljezur we noticed a "couple" asking for a ride with a card saying: Lisbon, We looked at each other and agreed to give them a ride. We told them we weren't going to Lisbon but in direction to Zambujeira do mar, if they wanted to come with us and go a bit forward and maybe finding a public transport or other ride. They accepted very happily and sat in the van.(...)" This and other situations that we went through during the 25 days were registered in a casual way on this book-diary so we want to share it with you! We are aware that there is still a lot to discover and also improve and for that we count on your comments, suggestions and questions that you find relevant.
